

The Expeditions First Step

Reframing the One-Shot as a Collaborative Bridge

Presented by Kim Liepert

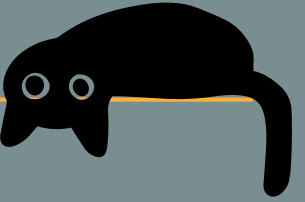

Defining the One-Shot Library Lesson

“The category of the ‘one-shot’ includes a diverse range of pedagogical approaches, goals, and outcome measures, all bound together by the common qualities of being a single standalone, time-limited (often 45- or 60-minute, though may be as short as 15 minutes) session (Cook, 2022).”

Instructional Foundations

Why the Bridge Stands

- Point of Need Instruction
- Professional Visibility & Partnership
- Iteration & Professional Growth

The Challenge: When the Bridge Cracks

- The Cultural Problem
- The Learning Limits
- The Sustainability Crisis

Curriculum

- Clear objectives
- Engaging content
- Assessment alignment
- Diverse perspectives

Resources

- Varied formats
- Quality materials
- Accessible tools
- Supportive environments

Turn & Talk

Which of these three cracks hit closest to home or have you observed frequently in your library career?

- The Cultural Problem
- The Learning Limits
- The Sustainability Crisis

Turn and share with someone near you.

Redesigning the Session

Foundational Shifts

Equality

Same for Everyone

- Identical structure
- Identical timing
- Identical surface

This is what the traditional one-shot assumes.

Equity

Everyone's Needs Met

- Flexible structure
- Flexible timing
- Intentional surface

This is the goal of instruction.

Universal Design For Learning

Designing Instruction for Equity

- Variety: visual, textual, interactive
- Engagement
- Expression

Intentional instructional design for all.

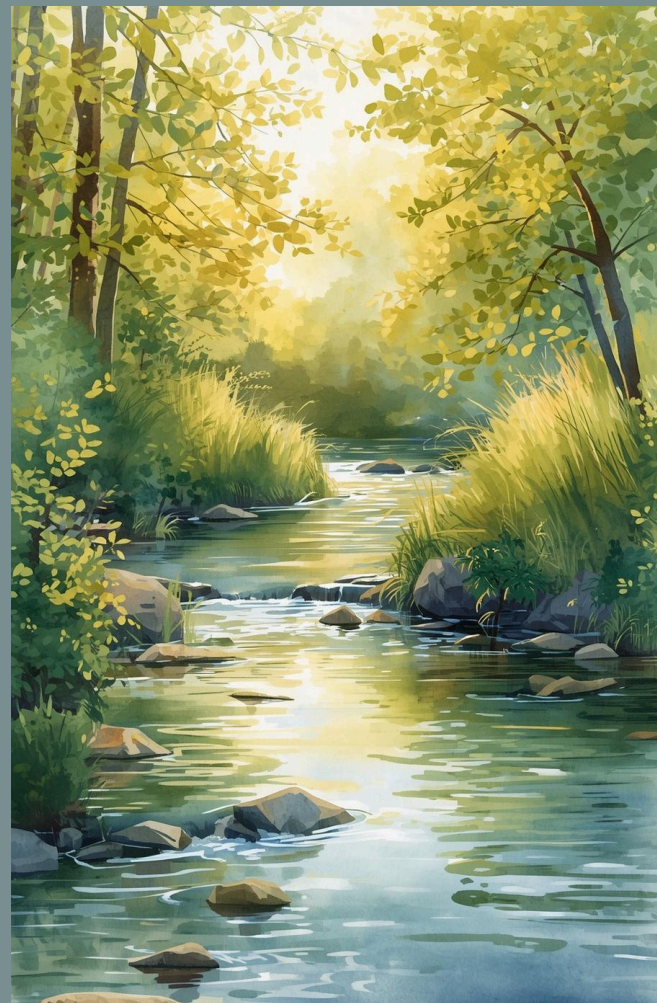

Pathways to Parity

Building Beyond the One-Shot

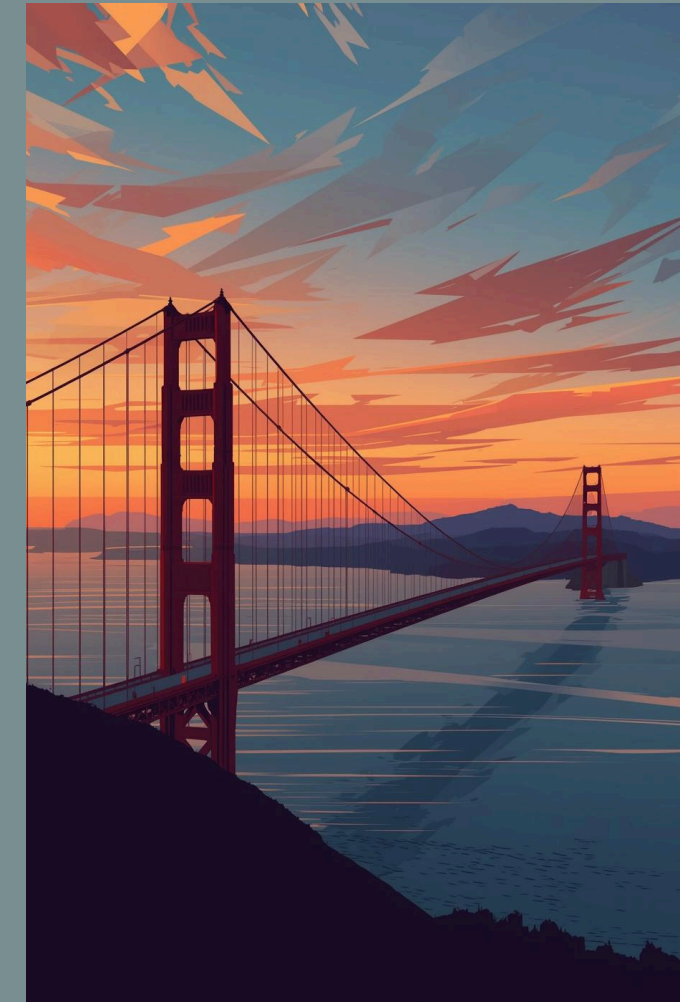

Asynchronous Learning Modules

Robust Backup
Resources

Incentivized Collaboration

Transformational
Partnership

Train-the-Trainer

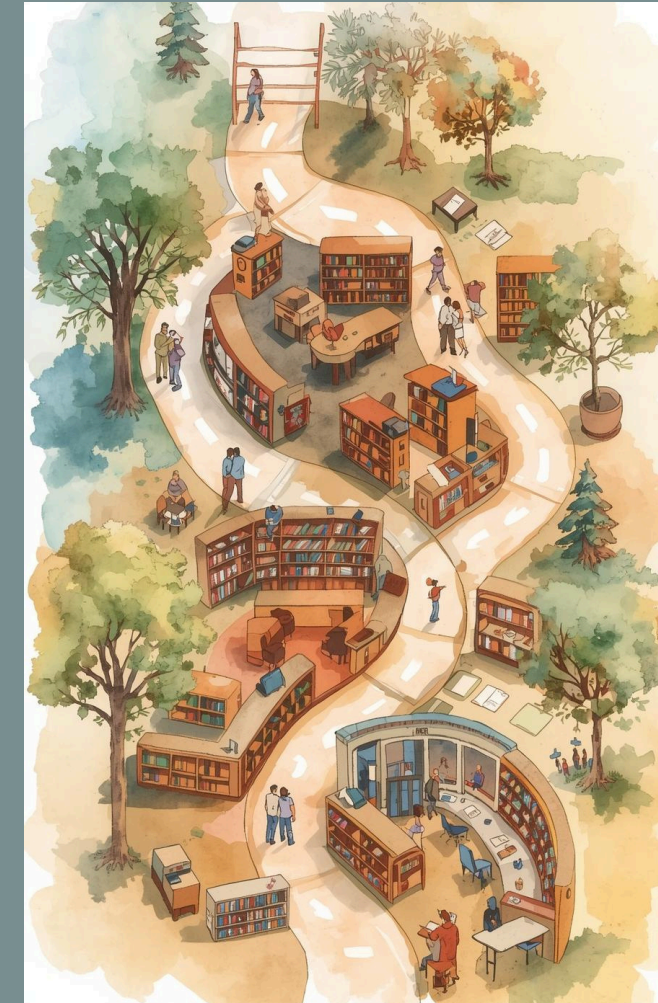

Multiply Impact,
embedded or woven
into coursework

When It's Still Just One Shot...

High-Impact UDL

Prioritize high-leverage strategies

Real-Time Engagement

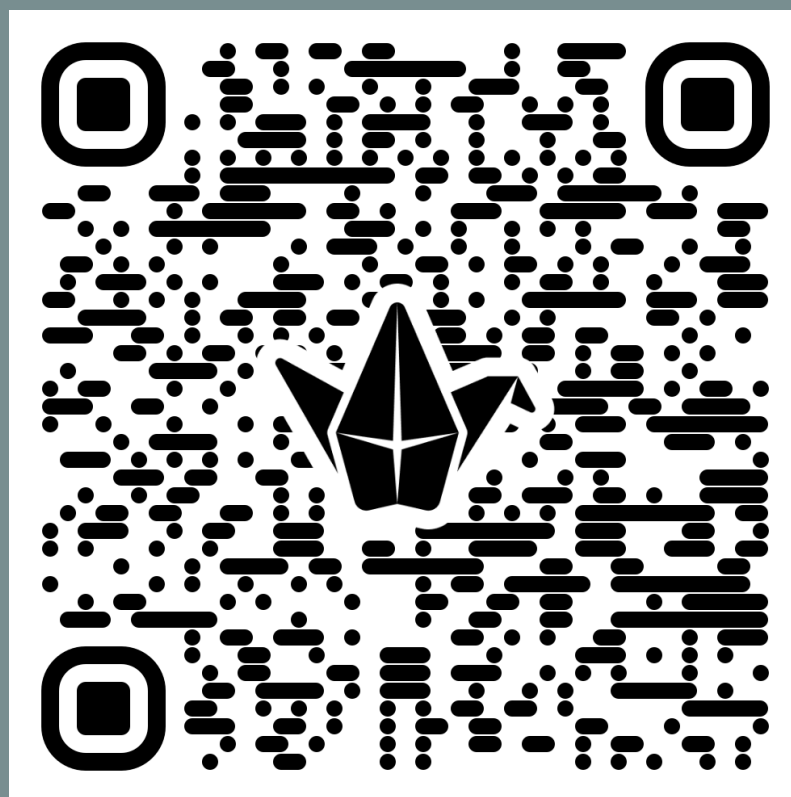

Modern enhancements in design

Padlet Activity

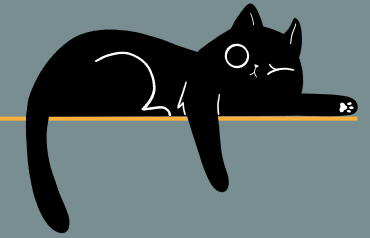

Share strategies you've already tried — or ones you wish your institution would support?

The Path Forward

Reframing the One-Shot

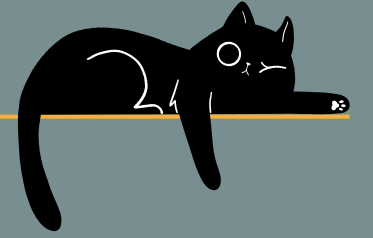

- Embrace Equity through Intentional UDL
- Extend Beyond the Session
- Measure What Matters

The Assessment Gap

Knowing If It Worked

- Embrace Equity through Intentional UDL
- Extend Beyond the Session
- Measure What Matters

Whole Group Share-Out

What's one commitment from these three that you could realistically act on before the end of this school year?

Next school year?

Two+ years out?

What kind of resources would help?

Embrace Equity through Intentional UDL

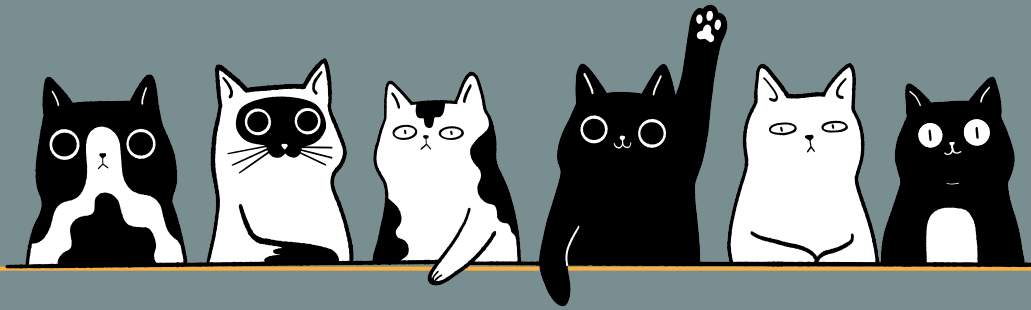

Extend Beyond the Session

Measure What Matters

The Path Continues

Media

Gemini AI assisted in building out the bridge metaphor.

Images and Slide Template from Canva.com

Questions?
Please reach out!!

References

Azadbakht, E. S., & Tokarz, R. E. (2022). Discovering research across the disciplines: Redesigning a librarian-taught honors course. College & Undergraduate Libraries, 29(3–4), 139–152. <https://doi.org/10.1080/10691316.2022.2140464>

Bastone, Z. (2022). Serving Everyone or Serving No One? Examining the Faux-Equity of the One-Shot. College & Research Libraries, 83(5). <https://doi.org/10.5860/crl.83.5.780>

Becker, J., Simmons, S. B., Fox, N., Back, A., & Reyes, B. (2022). Incentivizing Information Literacy Integration: A Case Study on Faculty–Librarian Collaboration. Communications in Information Literacy, 16(2). <https://doi.org/10.15760/comminfolit.2022.16.2.5>

Benjes-Small, C. (2023). There's a baby in the bath water: In defense of one-shots. College & Research Libraries News, 84(1). <https://doi.org/10.5860/crln.84.1.12>

Cook, D. (2022). Is the Library One-Shot Effective? A Meta-Analytic Study. College & Research Libraries, 83(5). <https://doi.org/10.5860/crl.83.5.739>

McMullin, R. M. (2022). Universal Design and library one-shot instruction. Public & Access Services Quarterly, 18(3), 177–189. <https://doi.org/10.1080/15228959.2021.2009406>

Pho, A., Abumeeiz, S., Bisbee, K., Mody, N., Romero, R., Tranfield, W., & Worsham, D. (2022). You Only Get One Shot: Critically Exploring and Reimagining the One-Shot Instruction Model. College & Research Libraries, 83(5). <https://doi.org/10.5860/crl.83.5.726>